DESCRIPTION

Abstract brass sculpture created by Lyse Oudoire in France during the 1970s. A French artist and sculptor active throughout the 1960s and 1970s, Lyse Oudoire developed a body of work focused on geometric forms and the balance of volumes, often execsculptiruted in polished or patinated metal.

The composition stands on a rectangular base supporting two openwork cubic volumes balanced on a slender metal structure. The interplay between cut-outs and solid masses creates a strong architectural presence, enhanced by the
