DESCRIPTION

Set comprising a bench and two stools in solid elm, made in France around 1980, in the style of Éditions Regain.

Each piece features a rectangular seat resting on straight legs with cross braces, recalling the architectural vocabulary of Regain's creations. The elm wood, with its warm and luminous grain, is finished with a satin varnish that enhances its honey tone. With their refined simplicity and solid construction, these pieces reflect the pursuit of furniture that is both functional and timeless.
