DESCRIPTION

Black lacquered metal and brass clamp lamp, designed by Jacques Biny and produced by Lita circa 1950.

The cylindrical spotlight is mounted on a clamp base, allowing easy attachment to a tabletop. Brass screws and knobs highlight the quality of the details. Fitted with a frosted glass lens-shaped diffuser, it provides soft, directional light. This model, part of the Zodiaque series, embodies Jacques Biny's refined, functional modernist aesthetic.

Manufacturer: Lita, circa 1950
