DESCRIPTION

Pair of circular wall lights produced by Maison Lunel around 1955.

Each piece features a cream-lacquered perforated metal frame edged with gilded brass. The opaline rhodoid diffuser casts a warm and even light, illustrating Lunel's mastery of domestic lighting in 1950s France. A central polished brass fitting completes the design, emphasizing the geometric precision and understated elegance typical of the house's creations.

Manufacturer: Maison Lunel, France, circa 1955.
