DESCRIPTION

Set of four model 6200 chairs in solid oak, with woven rope seat.

Designed by Robert and Trix Haussmann, one of the most important Swiss designer couples of the 20th century. Their work combined structural rigor with timeless elegance, as shown in this model where the simplicity of the lines enhances both the quality of the oak and the texture of the weaving.

A similar example is held in the Design Museum of Zurich.

Manufacturer: Dietiker AG, Switzerland, 1963.
