DESCRIPTION

Designed by Karim Azzabi for the renowned Italian brand Edra, the Floating Mathilda is a playful and innovative piece from the 1990s.

Its inflatable blue plastic structure, paired with foam padding and an olive-colored fabric cover, offers a unique and comfortable seating experience. The four spherical pearlized plastic feet enhance the piece's lightness and create a striking visual contrast.

With its rounded, sculptural forms and bold proportions, this armchair is not just a functional object but a statement piece that brings a sense of fun and curiosity to any space.

Manufacturer : Edra, Italy, circa 1990.
