DESCRIPTION

Decorative ceramic plaque created by Paul Pouchol in Vallauris during the 1950s.

It features a lightly sculpted mythological figure accompanied by a fantastic animal. Nuanced green, brown and black glazes stand out against a textured light background, reflecting the Mediterranean spirit characteristic of postwar Vallauris ceramics.

The treatment of relief and glazing gives the piece a sculptural quality reminiscent of the decorative wall panels produced by ceramic artists of the period.

Vallauris, circa 1955.
