DESCRIPTION

Blown glass vase by Nicolas Morin, continuing a family tradition rooted in the Art of Glass in Dieulefit. Son of Claude Morin, he carries forward the mastery of mouth-blown glass while developing his own vocabulary of pure forms and vibrant colors.

This model, crafted in deep blue glass, features a generous ovoid body rising into a tall slender neck. The uniform transparency and purity of the hue give the piece a timeless elegance, balancing formal rigor with the poetry of the material.
