DESCRIPTION

Pair of illuminated bedside shelves designed by Pierre Guariche for the apartments of the La Plagne ski resort in the 1960s.

Made from curved plywood and cream-white laminate, these wall-mounted units integrate a soft lighting system. Each shelf retains its original orange bulb cover, a distinctive graphic feature of Guariche's design language. The pair can be installed freely, either together or separately, depending on the interior layout.

Origin: La Plagne, the alpine resort to which Pierre Guariche made significant contributions during the 1960s.

Dimensions per shelf: H 7.87 in, W 15.75 in, D 10.63 in.

Manufacturer: Negroni, circa 1968.
