DESCRIPTION

Sofa end table in varnished Oregon pine, designed by Pierre Guariche for Hôtel Le France in La Plagne, circa 1965. This end table features the clean, minimalist lines characteristic of Guariche's modernist vocabulary. This is fitted with a white melamine sliding door that conceals a compartmentalized interior: either an open storage space or a fixed shelf designed for practical organization.

The combination of varnished wood and white melamine highlights the understated elegance and functional rigor
