DESCRIPTION

Bedside table designed by Pierre Guariche for the apartments of La Plagne and Bandol.

This minimal and functional piece is made of U-shaped bent plywood, finished with a white laminate top and a wood-veneered stretcher. Its clean lines and compact form reflect Guariche's commitment to modern living spaces, combining utility and elegance.

Provenance: La Plagne, the ski resort where Guariche played a major role in the interior design during the 1960s.

Manufacturer: Negroni, circa 1968.
