DESCRIPTION

First introduced in 1979, the Metafora coffee table captivates with its minimalist formal vocabulary and references to classical architecture. Designed by Lella and Massimo Vignelli, it combines the transparency of a large glass top with the textured materiality of travertine, used to carve four geometric volumes.

The base features a cube, a sphere, a pyramid, and a cylinder, all independent and freely positionable, allowing for a sculptural and ever-evolving composition.
