

A rare Charles II pewter cast multiple-reeded and punched-decorated dish, English, circa 1660-80

Sold

REF: 3976

Diameter: 42.2 cm (16.6")

Description

The rim with a ring of fleur-de-lys and five-petal rose decoration, the well typically left plain, touchmark to rear, possibly for William Auger, Leicester, (fl.1644-1662), PS15913

Literature: The rim of this dish is illustrated 'Journal of The Pewter Society', Autumn 2017, p.6. The article refers to only twenty eight recorded punch-decorated dishes. For a comparable example, again with fleur-de-lys and rose decoration, see The British Museum Collection, London, acc. no. 1898.02221.1
