

A very fine George III Scent Flask made in Birmingham in 1803 by Thomas Willmore.

£650

REF: 375789

Description

This piece is modelled as a small flask and is engraved on the front and reverse with chequered designs within a prick dot frame. The plain cover has a suspensory ring and unscrews to reveal the flask stopper. This piece is in excellent condition and is very well marked. Length: 1.85 inches, 4.63 cm. Diameter of the body: 1 inch, 2.5 cm.